Edited by Carol Mitchell

About the author: Heidi holds degrees in Early Childhood Development, Education, and Human Services. She was born and raised in Irvington, New York. She has since lived in Delaware, Costa Rica and now has her home on St Kitts, a small island in the Caribbean. Throughout her life Heidi has been dedicated to caring for and educating the young and old alike. Though she has made writing her full time career and is currently working on additional books, she continues to work within the education sphere, committing to non-for-profit work for the St Kitts Yacht Club Youth Programming and development of project based curriculum for her first series Living the Beach Life. Her love of photography and writing was rekindled by the beautiful Island on which she lives and the animals she loves. This has led her to create a second series based in St Kitts.

About the Editor: Carol Mitchell is a professional editor, the founder of CaribbeanReads Publishing and the author of the Caribbean Adventure Series.

Hello.

My name is Larry. I live on the Island of St. Kitts at the Gallery Café on Independence Square. I am a lizard. I'm not sure what kind of lizard I am but I know that I am very special.

“Larry can you please be quiet! I’m trying to relax over here.”

I look around to see who has so rudely interrupted me and I see my friend Mr. Green. He is frowning.
